BYLAW ARTICLE II. ADDITIONAL VOTING MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY STEERING COMMITTEE

Section A. Department representatives

• A representative from each department will be elected to the FSC by the eligible voting members of that department. Those departments with >100 faculty may appoint an additional representative for each additional 100 faculty (i.e. 1-199 faculty = 1 representative; 200-299 = 2 representatives; 300-399 = 3 representatives, etc.)

• Only faculty with primary appointments in their Departments may run for election and vote for their representatives.

• Department representatives may be full-time or part-time faculty members, as defined in Article III, section A.

• They are responsible for communicating FSC initiatives to their peers and likewise responsible for bringing the concerns of their peers to the FSC.

• Department representatives will serve 2-year terms.

• Members may serve more than one term.

• The number of faculty in each Department will be determined from the yearly IUSM census done in October.

• In the event the Nominations Committee is unable to procure enough willing nominations to fill the slate for Department Representative a faculty member may run unopposed on the ballot.

Section B. Representatives from the non-Indianapolis regional campuses

These four faculty members must be eligible voting members at one of the Regional Medical Education Campuses. They will represent their respective campus by region: North (Northwest, South Bend); East (Fort Wayne, Muncie); South (Bloomington, Evansville); West (Terre Haute, West Lafayette). For elections in an odd year, the representatives from the North and West Regions shall be elected. For elections in an even year, the representatives from the South and East regions shall be elected. (Two-Year Term, two people elected per year). Regional Representatives cannot simultaneously serve as a Departmental Representative during the term for which they are elected. During the election period, faculty members appointed on a regional medical education campus will vote for a Regional Representative, but will not also vote for a Departmental Representative. This ensures that all voting faculty members across the state will get one vote for a representative.

Section C. Representatives to the IUPUI Faculty Council

One faculty steering committee member will be elected to represent the IU School of Medicine on the IUPUI Faculty Council (IFC). Unit representatives are elected for two-year terms. Eligibility requirements are set by the IFC.
Section D. Representative to the Indiana University Faculty Council

The faculty member in this role is put forward by the IUSM Faculty President to run for the University Faculty Council. This faculty member would represent the IU School of Medicine; elected members may serve two consecutive two-year terms. If this nominated faculty member does not get elected to the UFC, he/she will not serve on the FSC. Eligibility requirements are set by the UFC.

BYLAW ARTICLE III. ELECTIONS

Voting members of the IUSM faculty are given the opportunity to participate in the faculty representative election process for the IU School of Medicine each academic year.

Section A. Definition of Part-Time Faculty

For eligibility, faculty members must hold permanent IU faculty appointments (e.g. non-visiting appointments) of .60 FTE or more, or must hold an appointment of .60 FTE or more as of the IUSM census date with an affiliated institution that is part of the IUSM Indianapolis campus or Academic Health Center, per the IUSM Guidelines for the Appointment, Reappointment, and Promotion of Affiliate Faculty Members.

Section B. The Faculty Preference Sheet

The Faculty Preference Sheet is sent to the IUSM faculty in the fall to allow them to indicate their interest in serving on committees, both standing and ad-hoc Faculty may also nominate other faculty members for committees.

Section C. The Nominations Committee

The Nominations Committee is responsible for producing yearly a slate of candidates in good standing with the school which will be derived from the faculty preference sheet and the active recruitment of qualified nominees. The committee will consist of the President Elect, the immediate-Past-President, and at minimum three voting Faculty members appointed by the President of the Faculty. The Executive Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs and Professional Development will serve as an ex-officio member of the committee, and the President-Elect will chair the committee.

Section D. Ballot

Those faculty members that were selected by the Nominations Committee to be on the ballot will be notified and asked to accept or decline the nomination within 2 weeks. Once acceptance is received, the final ballot is constructed and delivered to the FSC for vetting. After approval from the Faculty Steering Committee, the ballot is sent to voting faculty and remains open for votes for four weeks.

Section E. Elected Members

Election winners are notified after the ballot is closed. Winners are announced each year at the Spring Faculty Meeting.
BYLAW ARTICLE IV. STANDING COMMITTEES REPORTING TO THE FSC

Dean-appointed committee members
Acting as the Dean’s designee, the Executive Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs, Professional Development, and Diversity (EAD) consults with committee chairs in the appointment of committee members to ensure that committees are diverse and representative of key stakeholder groups. Each spring, committee chairs are asked to review their current rosters with consideration of diversity in terms of gender, race/ethnicity, department, degree (i.e., PhD, MD), and campus. Faculty members who express interest in a particular committee via the preference sheet are also considered. New committee members are invited to serve by either the EAD or committee chair, with committee appointments confirmed by the EAD in an annual committee appointment letter.

Academic Standards Committee
The Academic Standards Committee (ASC) of IUSM is charged by the Curriculum Council Steering Committee with implementing a systematic evaluation process for the curricular components (courses and clerkships) of the medical education program to ensure adherence to the IUSM Institutional Learning Objectives and curricular policy; comparability of instruction, assessment, and outcomes; and equivalency in grading. There are also student representatives to this committee.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Admissions Committee
The goals of the Admissions Committee of the Indiana University School of Medicine are to select those applicants who possess the strong academic abilities and personal characteristics necessary to become caring, compassionate physicians, and to build an entering medical class that reflects the diversity of Indiana. There are also student representatives to this committee.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Awards Committee.
The Awards Committee is responsible for managing the process of selecting recipients for the School’s two major awards: the Steven C. Beering award for Advancement of Biomedical Science; and the Mark Brothers Award. In addition, the Committee is responsible for identifying significant external awards for which IUSM faculty will be nominated as viable candidates. This includes major national awards and competitive grant nominations (such as Howard Hughes, Burroughs Wellcome), as well as local honors, including IBJ awards, local organizations, etc. Whenever there is a restriction in the number of candidates that can be nominated per School, the Committee will conduct the selection process and recommend a nominee/s.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Biomedical Research Committee
The Biomedical Research Committee assists the faculty and advises the administration in the provision of a stimulating environment for creative scholarship. The committee recommends methods of enhancing the worth of individual protocols or research programs, encourages innovation, stimulates new investigative endeavors, fosters interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches, and provides counsel on the identification and wide use of institutional resources. The Biomedical Research Committee is charged with the scientific review of research grants that are submitted for the Biomedical Research Grants, Research Enhancement Grants or Showalter Trust funding mechanisms.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty. Members of the committee should have an extramurally funded research program and experience both in writing and submitting external grant proposals. The members of the committee are expected to review between 6-10 grants each year.

Curriculum Council Steering Committee

The Curriculum Council Steering Committee is the faculty body that manages the medical curriculum for the Indiana University School of Medicine through oversight of its design, implementation and management of the School's curriculum at all campuses. The CCSC sets curricular policy for education and has oversight responsibility for ensuring compliance and comparability. The CCSC reviews data at specified intervals to monitor and evaluate the curriculum as a whole and make informed decisions to enhance, coordinate, and ensure coherence of the educational program. The CCSC will have a member from each Regional Campus. There are also student representatives to this committee.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Community Relations Committee

The Faculty Community Relations Committee recognizes that the faculty, staff and students of the Indiana University School of Medicine are affected by, and have an effect on, their surrounding neighborhoods and the broader Indiana community. The committee promotes the resources and the various educational, research and clinical programs of the School of Medicine, enhancing the health and the quality of life in the community and on the school’s campuses.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Diversity Council

The mission of the Diversity Standing committee is to enhance the inclusive excellence of the medical school community by promoting anti-racism and foster the accomplishment of the school’s tripartite mission. The Council has a particular emphasis on defining, articulating and amplifying the importance of diversity, equity and inclusion; recognizing and advancing key diversity initiatives in support of students, trainees, staff and faculty; recommending and sponsoring DEI focused programming that supports a welcoming environment. The council seeks to encourage, enable, and empower all members of the IU School of Medicine community to positively contribute to and benefit from a diverse, equitable, and inclusive learning and working environment.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Faculty Development Coordinating Committee

The mission and purpose of the Faculty Development Coordinating Committee is to inform the strategic plan for faculty development by actively engaging with OFAPD. This includes evaluation of policies, assistance in reaching a broader group of faculty and the development of novel programs and/or policies crucial for the maintenance of high levels of faculty vitality at IUSM.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

Lecturers and Clinical Rank Faculty Promotions Committee
This committee reviews and makes recommendations concerning lecturer and clinical rank faculty dossiers submitted for promotion and/or awarding of a long-term appointment contract. Committee members are expected to familiarize themselves with School and Campus tenure and promotion requirements, to be prepared to discuss anywhere from 20 to 60 dossiers that have been submitted, and to serve as the primary or secondary reviewer of a few dossiers assigned by the committee chair. This involves a written review which the member presents to the rest of the committee.

Eligibility: Non-tenure track faculty at full professor rank holding the long-term contract only

Promotion and Tenure Committee
This committee reviews and votes on tenure track faculty dossiers submitted for tenure and/or promotion, and on progress toward tenure for those faculty members receiving their 3-year and 5-year reviews. Committee members are expected to familiarize themselves with School and Campus tenure and promotion requirements, to be prepared to discuss anywhere from 20 to 60 dossiers that have been submitted, and to serve as the primary or secondary reviewer of a few dossiers assigned by the committee chair. This involves a written review which the member presents to the rest of the committee.

Eligibility: Tenured faculty at full professor rank only

Student Promotions Committee
This committee reviews the academic progress of our students and considers individual issues of academic probation, non-progression regarding competency curriculum, or withdrawal/dismissal from the school for failure to maintain academic standards. There are also student representatives to this committee.

Eligibility: Tenure or non-tenure track faculty

BYLAW ARTICLE V. COMMITTEE REPORTS
Standing committee reports are submitted to the Secretary of the Faculty Steering Committee annually by the committee chair or designee. Formal presentation of the standing committee reports will be made to the FSC based on a schedule of presentation determined by the Secretary.

Ad-Hoc Committee reports are submitted to the Faculty Steering Committee for review and approval in April of each academic year.

BYLAW ARTICLE VI. BUDGETARY AFFAIRS COMMITTEE
The Budgetary Advisory Committee (BAC-FSC) of IUSM shall be an ad hoc committee charged to consult with School administration about the financial health of the School, sources and allocation of funds to support the School’s tripartite mission, and relevant benchmark data when available. Members shall be the FSC President, Secretary, President-elect, Secretary-elect, and two FSC members appointed by the FSC president. Appointed members will serve 2-year terms. The executive associate dean of financial and administrative services will be an ex-officio member. This advisory committee will report to the FSC annually.

BYLAW ARTICLE VII. DEFINITION OF A QUORUM

A quorum will be required for all official votes taken at the FSC meetings. A quorum will be defined as a simple majority of all FSC voting members.

BYLAW ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

Section A. Introduction of Amendments

A resolution to amend the Bylaws may be introduced at any regular meeting of the FSC by any voting member, or by written petition of at least 20 members of the voting faculty submitted to the President of the Faculty.

Section B. Adoption

Adoption of an amendment to the Bylaws shall require a favorable vote of 2/3 of all voting FSC members. Members will be allowed to cast their vote at the FSC meeting or within 48 hours following the regular FSC meeting, if prior 2-week advance notice of the intention to conduct a vote is given to members of the FSC.

Section C. Clerical Modifications

The President is authorized, after consultation with the Secretary, to make simple clerical modifications to the Bylaws such as corrections to spelling or punctuation, insertion or removal of cross-references, or updating the Bylaws to reflect changes in the names of administrative offices or positions, provided that doing so in no way alters the intent of the text.

Adopted November 17, 2016. Amended 1/31/17; 5/25/18, 4/18/19; 12/19/19; 7/1/23.
