Section 4. The Nominations Committee shall consist of the President Elect, the Immediate-Past President, and no fewer than three voting Faculty members appointed by the President of the Faculty to a one-year term. The Executive Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs and Professional Development shall serve as an ex-officio member, and the President-Elect shall chair this committee. The Nominations Committee shall be responsible for producing yearly a viable slate of candidates in good standing with the School. The committee shall use both the submissions of faculty preferences for service (faculty preference sheet) and the active recruitment of qualified nominees.

Section 5. Other Ad Hoc Committees may be appointed by the President who shall specify their charges, membership and chair. They shall report to the Faculty on completion of their charges. The tenure of all such committees shall automatically lapse each July 1st.

Section 6. Unit Representatives to the IUPUI Faculty Council

The School of Medicine shall provide Unit Representatives to the IUPUI Faculty Council in the number as determined annually by that Council. The President, President-Elect, Secretary and Secretary-Elect of the Medical School Faculty shall serve as Unit Representatives to the IUPUI Faculty Council, provided that they are eligible by the IUPUI Constitution for such office, and will not otherwise be serving as members of that body. The Faculty during the annual election will elect the remainder of the needed representatives.

Section 7. Unit Nominees to the University Faculty Council

The Nominations Committee shall recommend and the Steering Committee shall designate two candidates for IUPUI at-large representative to the University Faculty Council. The Secretary shall send a letter nominating these candidates to the IUPUI Faculty Council Secretary during the spring semester each academic year.

ARTICLE VI. Faculty Elections

Section 1. Voting Faculty members may nominate candidates for President-Elect, Secretary-Elect, or Faculty-elected membership of Medical School Standing Committees, campus representatives, and Unit Representatives to the IUPUI Faculty Council. Candidates must be voting Faculty members.

Section 2. Their nominations must be submitted in writing to the Secretary in the fall of each academic year. If there are fewer candidates than vacant elective positions for any office or committee, the Nominations Committee, with the concurrence of the Steering Committee, shall nominate additional candidates (with their consent as above) to bring the number up to at least one more than the number of vacant elective positions in each category. The final list of candidates for each position shall be circulated to the Faculty for election by mail or electronic ballot of voting Faculty members no later than the first part of the spring semester each academic year. The results of the election of Unit Representatives shall be validated by the Secretary of the IUPUI Faculty Council during the spring semester each academic year. All election results shall also be validated at the Annual Business Meeting.

Section 3. Voting members of non-Indianapolis regional campuses may nominate candidates for Faculty Steering Committee membership. Their nominations must be submitted in writing to the Secretary in the fall of each academic year. If, there are fewer candidates than necessary, the Nominations Committee, with the concurrence of the Steering Committee, shall complete the slate. The final list of candidates shall be circulated for the vote by mail or electronic ballot to the Faculty of non- Indianapolis campuses only. The results of the election shall be validated at the Annual Business Meeting.

ARTICLE VII. Terms of Office and Duties

Section 1. The President shall chair Faculty and Steering Committee Meetings. In the President's absence, the President shall delegate this authority to another member of the Steering Committee. The meetings shall be conducted according to Robert's "Rules of Order" except as provided otherwise in this Constitution and By-Laws. The President on assuming office may appoint a Parliamentarian to serve for one year.

Section 2. The Secretary, in addition to duties given elsewhere in this Constitution, shall conduct correspondence and keep minutes for the Faculty and Steering Committee meetings.

Section 3. The President-Elect and Secretary-Elect shall hold this position for one year commencing

July 1st and shall become President and Secretary respectively during the second year following their election.

Section 4. Terms for Officers.

The term of the elected office for Faculty members shall be one subsequent year for President and Secretary and two consecutive years for membership in any one Medical School Standing Committee. Two members shall be elected yearly to each Medical School Standing Committee to replace those whose tenure lapses.

Section 5. Terms for Regional Campus Members.

The term of office for the representatives to the Steering Committee from the non-Indianapolis campuses shall be two years. The four-regional representatives shall be elected in alternate years and shall be from different regional campuses: North (Northwest, South Bend); East (Fort Wayne, Muncie); South (Bloomington, Evansville); West (Terre Haute, West Lafayette). It shall be the particular duty of the elected representatives to communicate the concerns of the Faculty at the regional campuses they represent to the Steering Committee.

Section 6. Terms for Department Representatives

Department representatives shall serve 2-year terms.

Section 7. Simultaneous Service.

A voting member of the Faculty may hold only one elective position within the Medical School, but may serve simultaneously on the IUPUI Faculty Council and/or the all University Faculty Council.

Section 8. Eligibility.

The Dean, Executive Associate Deans, Associate Deans, Assistant Deans, and Department Chairs are ineligible for elective office.

Section 9. Unexpired Terms

The President shall appoint voting Faculty members to fill any vacancies arising in Faculty-elected positions. Such appointments shall be effective until the next Faculty elections, when the Faculty shall elect a voting Faculty member to serve any unexpired part of the term.

ARTICLE VIII. Faculty Meetings

Section 1. Quorum.

Fifty voting members of the Faculty shall constitute a quorum.

Section 2. Meetings

Regular Meetings shall be held at least two times a year. One of these shall be an Annual Business Meeting to be held during the Spring of each year to validate the election of a President-Elect, Secretary-Elect, two members of each Medical School Standing Committee, the Unit Representatives to the IUPUI Faculty Council, and those elected to complete unexpired terms of office. This meeting shall also consider reports from the Steering Committee spokesperson of the Faculty-elected members of each standing Medical School Committee and from the Dean.

Special Meetings shall be called within thirty days of the receipt by the Secretary of a petition from twenty-five members of the Faculty. Special Faculty meetings shall consider the business detailed in the Faculty petition. The President or the Dean may also direct the Secretary to call a Special Faculty Meeting to discuss stated specific business.

Section 3. Notification of Meetings. The Secretary shall notify all members of the Faculty at least one week in advance by circulating an agenda by mail or electronic media, and the time and place of each Faculty meeting. The Secretary shall also issue minutes of each meeting.

Section 4. Agenda for Meetings. To place new business on the agenda, a Faculty member should give notice to the Secretary at least two weeks before the meeting concerned and such notice shall be in writing or electronic media.

ARTICLE IX. Amendments to the Constitution

Section 1. Proposed amendments to the Constitution must be submitted to the Secretary of the Faculty at least fourteen days before a Faculty meeting. The proposed change shall appear on the agenda for the Faculty Meeting at which it is to be discussed. Approval of an amendment to the Constitution requires at least two-thirds affirmative votes of those responding in a mail or electronic ballot of voting Faculty members to be conducted with the next annual elections.
